Speaking

A1 | A2 | B1 | B2 | C1 | C2

C1

Upper-intermediate

It indicates that a person has a proficient or advanced level of English and can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning. They can express themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. They can use the language effectively and flexibly in their social, academic, and professional lives. They can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors, and cohesive devices. They are also able to understand the majority of TV news and current affairs programmes.

Writing

A1 | A2 | B1 | B2 | C1 | C2

C1

Upper-intermediate

At this level, individuals are able to write clear, well-structured, and nuanced texts on complex topics and genres, such as academic articles, research papers, and legal documents. They are able to use a wide range of vocabulary, grammar structures, and cohesive devices to create highly sophisticated and nuanced texts. Writing at this level is characterized by near-native fluency, accuracy, and control, with few if any errors.
